Communication of today.

In what ways has our communication chanced, as in the mean time we still live in our hereditary communication patterns.

Why do we feel like it is getting harder to communicate?
Do we really live in a communication society?
In what ways has communication chanced technology & human wise?
- communication or communications?
It is not good enough to reach out – you have to reach in!

Worth considering, useful and fun seminar.

Stefan Lindstrom has lectured at the Stockholm University and many private organizations and companies. Here he blends knowledge and experience with his teasing rhetoric way of speaking.
