A project in technique and environment with children at the ages 1-5.

The pre-schools in Herrhagen/Norrstrand in Karlstad, has during a three-year period worked with a project called forest-technique-environment. We will describe how we got the idea for the project and how it has developed. Most important; how we have been working with the children who are between the ages of 1-5.